CORRESPONDENCE—PRESIDENT MALECKI

No report.

REPORTS

PRESIDENT—MOLLY MALECKI

- Health Care: Molly and Steve went over the Health Insurance proposal. You should check the AFSCME website often for updates. www.AFSCME.MN.org
- Convention attendees gave some highlights for the membership. It was a great convention, good workshops, a lot more work then people thought it would be.

TREASURER—WALTER HANSON

- The total balance is $76,700.52. Motion was made, seconded and passed to accept the report.
- Walter informed us that 100 people have been paying the wrong dues but it has been corrected.

MEMBERSHIP—ANN BAIRD

No report.

CHIEF STEWARD—THERESA SMITH

No report.

COUNCIL 5 E-BOARD—MOLLY MALECKI

Molly reported also that is was a great convention.

OTHER OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES

- Janna gave a report on the One on One. So far 12 people have joined. They have found that networking works the best.
- A motion was made and seconded to check into and purchase the green wrist bands that were given out at the rally. It was amended to purchase 500 and more later if needed. The motion passed.

STAFF REPORT—STEVE MARINCEL

- The rally was great with about 300 people attending even though we had to move it indoors because of the weather.
- Wrist bands were a great hit.
- There will be another function to help out with in October.

- We need to put maps together for strike and picketing.
- Strike Committee needs more help.
- Thanks to all that helped to push the setting of the tax levy.

Next Membership Meeting is Tuesday November 6th at Southdale Library 7:00 p.m.
Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Jeanne Whetstone
